

| Personal Information  |   |                     |             |             |                         |                     |  |
|---|---|---------------------|-------------|-------------|-------------------------|---------------------|--|
| First Name  | Yun Kyung   | Last Name           | Kim         |             |                         |                     |  |
| Organization  | Korea Institute of Science and Technology                     |                     |             |             |                         |                     |  |
| Position  | Principal Scientist   | Nationality         | South Korea |             |                         |                     |  |
| Field of Expertise  | Neurodegenerative disorders, Alzheimer's disease              |                     |             |             |                         |                     |  |
| Title of Presentation   | The effects of Particulate Matter (PM) pollution on the brain |                     |             |             |                         |                     |  |
|  |   |                     |             |             |                         |                     |  |
|   |   |                     |             | Education   |                         |                     |  |
|   |   |                     |             | 1997 – 2001 | B.S. Biological Science | KAIST               |  |
|   |   |                     |             | 2002– 2005  | M.S. Biological Science | KAIST               |  |
|   |   |                     |             | 2005 –2000  | Ph.D. Chemistry         | New York University |  |
| 2003– 2004  | Visiting Researcher   | New York University |             |             |                         |                     |  |
| Professional Experience   |   |                     |             |             |                         |                     |  |
| 2010 – 2017   | Senior Research Scientist, KIST                               |                     |             |             |                         |                     |  |
| 2018 – Current  | Principal Research Scientist, KIST                            |                     |             |             |                         |                     |  |
| 2012– Current   | Associate Professor, UST, KIST school                         |                     |             |             |                         |                     |  |